

Content #7

Indian Tax exemption on lease payments

For a Native American individual, a Native American business or a Tribal Entity to qualify for an exemption of tax on the lease payments of a vehicle, the same qualifications and documentation is required as if it were a purchase.

Refer to the applicable contents of the following to obtain the qualifications and documentation required:

- A) Content #5 - Indian Retail Exemption - for a Native American Individual
- B) Content #6 - Reservation Business Exemption – for Tribal entities or Native American businesses